1. NTB-2¹ of SAG Transmasch is the former Hille Feinstmaschinenbauwerk, located in Dresden A-36, Otto Mohrstrasse 15. It employs 140 persons. It develops new models of machine tools according to Soviet orders. The chief of NTB-2 is (fnu) Blinov, who has held this post since 1945. Blinov is 43 or 44 years of age, 170 cm tall, with dark hair. His wife and two children live with him in Dresden-Weisser Hirsch. Blinov is the only Russian in NTB-2, though he formerly had an unidentified assistant.
2. NTB-2 is responsible to the Scientific-Technical Bureau Administration of SAG Transmasch in Leipzig, Waldstrasse 1. Soviet officials in the Leipzig office include Major (fnu) Chuikov and Major (fnu) Yanikov. NTB-2 was formerly a member of the SAG Podemnik group, until the latter was dissolved. German Director of NTB-2 is Franz Herder.
3. The following scientific-technical bureaus also reportedly exist under SAG Transmasch Headquarters:
- a) NTB-1, in Leipzig
 - b) NTB-3, in Chemnitz
- There also exists a scientific-technical bureau responsible to the SAG Kabel group, located in Dresden, Breitscheidstrasse 15-17.
4. NTB-2, for example, built a milling machine (Zahnrad Fraesmaschine) during the period 1950-1952; the machine was in three types, called RS-1, RS-2, and RS-3, as designed by Transmasch NTB-1 in Leipzig. In 1952 NTB-2 also built a Zahnradstossmaschine (type SK-1).
